About Akshar Worldtrade

Akshar Worldtrade is an international trade enterprise based in Rajkot, Gujarat, India. Our commercial focus is centered on sourcing, handling, and exporting high-quality agricultural commodities and spices to global buyers, wholesale importers, food manufacturers, and trading partners.

India is one of the world's leading agricultural origins, known for producing exceptional varieties of grains, seed spices, blended seasonings, and whole spices. We work directly with established agricultural producing regions across Gujarat, Rajasthan, and other major Indian farming belts to deliver consistent grading, reliable shipment execution, and transparent trade relationships.

Rajkot & Gujarat Sourcing Hub Advantage

- Regional Agri Hub: Rajkot is situated in Western India's prominent agricultural producing belt, well-connected for cumin seeds, sesame seeds, mustard, grains, and spices.
- Export Shipments: Export shipments can be coordinated through suitable Indian ports based on destination, product and shipment requirements.
- Direct Sourcing: Sourced from established agricultural markets, aggregators, and primary processors to provide dependable commodity supply.
- Quality Coordination: Product parameters and grading can be aligned to contractual specifications and buyer requirements.

Our Export Commitments to Buyers

Quality-Focused Sourcing

Procurement from established producing regions aligned with buyer specifications for purity, moisture, and cleanliness.

Reliable Supply Coordination

Structured container dispatch planning, realistic production timelines, and transparent contract fulfilment for B2B buyers.

Commercial Integrity

Competitive direct FOB / CIF quotations, transparent commercial terms, and prompt milestone communication throughout execution.

Long-Term Partnerships

We prioritize enduring, repeat business relationships with international distributors, retail packers, and food processors.
